

Child Protection Officer Role

What makes a good Child Protection Officer?

- Must be child-focussed and able to think about things from the perspective of a junior/young person
- Must communicate well with both adults and children
- Must have good administration and recording skills
- Should be able to promote and advocate good practice and safeguarding within the place to play

Core knowledge base

- Core values of good practice
- The role of the LTA and of places to play affiliated to the LTA, including procedures, policies and guidance □
Roles, responsibilities and contact details of local statutory agencies
- Confidentiality procedures/principles
- Basic principles of equality and diversity
- Preventive and pre-emptive approaches to safeguarding
- Forms and signs of abuse

Role and responsibilities

- To assist the place to play in implementing and promoting a child protection policy and plan
- To maintain the contact details for the County LTA and for local statutory services i.e. social services
- To act as a point of contact for any child protection concerns
- To record child protection cases in an effective and reliable way
- To communicate with the County and National LTA over child protection cases
- To seek training and information from the LTA and to cascade this to the committee/members
- To ensure that confidentiality is maintained and also that information is passed on where necessary
- To ensure that recruitment is safe and that appropriate checks i.e. CRB, are carried out where relevant

Wylam Tennis Club Safeguarding Officer Angela James has an enhanced CRB clearance. She works as an OFSTED inspector and undertakes the Safeguarding Inspection of Primary Schools.

Angela James 07873132451

LTA Office - 0208 487 7008/7116
(24 hour line) - 07971 141 024

